PETITIONING THE COURTTo issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1 and 2

Mandatory Condition #2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.Supporting Evidence: Francisco Martinez was arrested on December 31, 2011, for possession of a firearm, Toppenish Police Department case number 11P5818.

According to an incident report from the Toppenish Police Department, on December 31, 2011, officers attempted to stop a vehicle after it had committed several traffic violations. During the pursuit, which reached speeds up to 100 miles per hour, the suspect vehicle turned its lights off, and ran through numerous stop signs, and red lights. After a lengthy pursuit, the suspect vehicle stopped at a mobile court where the driver was taken into custody and identified as Francisco Martinez.

Officers subsequently located a handgun which was loaded with hollow point ammunition just outside the suspect vehicle and a magazine with the same type of ammunition on the defendant's person. It should be noted that the suspect vehicle contained three other occupants, a female who was sitting in the front passenger's seat, and two young children who were in the back seat and were not wearing seat belts.
